Seattle, Washington- Seattle is known as the 'Emerald City', and just like the home of the Wizard of Oz in the fairy tale, it is a magical place. Rated as one of the world's most liveable cities, after Melbourne and Montreal, it boasts among its citizens three out of the world's ten richest men, including Bill Gates, head of the mighty Microsoft Empire. The city's emergence as a trend-setting and fashionable metropolis with sky-high property prices has occurred in less than 200 years, since it was founded in 1869.

Ketchikan- Alaska-clings to the shores of Tongass Narrows and drapes the mountains with a cheerful air. Besides the main attractions of Creek Street, Totem Poles, a Museum and Saxman Village, Ketchikan is home to beautiful Misty Fjords National Monument.

Tracy Arm Fjord- Sail along the massive ice face of Tracy Arm Fjord, listen closely for the primordial "singing of the ice."

Juneau –Alaska let your imagination run wild! Visit Mendenhall Glacier, explore the lush Tongass National Forest, hunt for souvenirs in town or get out and Kayak, dogsled, raft, whale watch, sightsee or fish! History buffs and gold rush fans will equally love this destination!

Skagway, Alaska the northernmost point of the Inside Passage, was the trading post serving the Klondike Gold Rush in 1897. Within three months, a tent and shack town of 20,000 people had sprung up and throngs of hopeful gold-seekers stamped the town, the jumping-off point for the 500-mile (805km) trek to the goldfields in the Yukon. Skagway's rapid growth brought in its wake disease and violence, and it was notorious for lawless characters as well as its many bars and prostitutes; a place reported to be 'hell on earth'. After gathering supplies prospectors faced severe hardships on the Chilkoot Trail and the White Pass Trail, two routes over the mountains into Canadian territory. The latter, known as the 'Dead Horse Trail' became littered with the bodies of exhausted and beaten packhorses

Victoria, British Columbia The locals play croquet, double-decker buses wend their way through the well-kept streets, and afternoon tea is served daily at the Empress Hotel. Victoria so closely resembles an English seaside town that it almost seems out of place among the majestic snow mantled mountains and cedar forests that surround it. This juxtaposition, of course, only adds to its charm.
